STATEMENT OF PURPOSE & PRINCIPLES

National BIWAYS is produced by the Australian Bisexual Network to inform its audience about social, political and personal issues relevant to bisexuality and bisexual people, to provide a forum for exchanging opinions and sharing experiences, to link up with and support geographically or socially isolated bisexual people, to foster the Bisexual Movement in Australia and to help build a diverse multicultural community of bisexual and bi-friendly people and groups in Australia.

ABN realises that bisexuality is inextricably linked to other identities (gender, race, class, etc). Our intention is that National BIWAYS will represent a broad spectrum of bisexual voices and images. We are committed to taking an active role in building a multicultural bisexual community free of racism, sexism, classism, homophobia and other forms of oppression.

Through self-examination and through the contents of this news magazine, we will endeavour to challenge our own racism, classism, sexism (and our own biphobia) as well as that of others. We will work to create a supportive bisexual community and to promote equality and understanding for bisexual people in both the heterosexual and the lesbian/gay communities. We regard ourselves as part of a larger sexual minority (queer) community, a gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender communities, and consider the fight for lesbian and gay rights to be our own. We advocate the recognition, inclusion and involvement of bisexual people in existing gay and lesbian and transgender communities, in lesbian and gay politics, in community development and consultations, in sexual health and HIV/AIDS issues, policy, research and education. ABN does not support the promotion of pedophilia or organisations that promote it.

We are sex-positive, recognising that we live under increasing sexual oppression. We support sex education for its own sake. We advocate the distribution of information and resources to halt the spread of HIV/AIDS, STDs and unwanted pregnancies. We support the rights of people with HIV/AIDS to be free of discrimination, to have access to information, housing and quality medical care and treatments.

We seek to expand, not constrain, the definitions of bisexual and we respect the right of the individual to define her/his own self-definition, identity and type of relationship(s), free from any social, political, religious or economic coercion. We support healthy relationships between consenting adults. We acknowledge the right of partners, particularly female partners of bisexual men, to quality non-judgemental counselling and health services if needed, to greater understanding by all communities and to honesty in their relationship.

National BIWAYS is published at least once every two months. It is available by membership subscription, exchange, or from various affiliated bisexual groups in Australia. The views expressed in this magazine are those of the authors unless otherwise stated. The inclusion of a person's name or photograph or business advertisement should not be taken as an indication of their sexual identity.

The Australian Bisexual Network, Bisexual Youth Forum, the Bisexual Community Centre and National BIWAYS are unfunded and rely on your support to keep going. We welcome submissions of material for publication; assistance with production; involvement in Network and group activities; individual and community financial or "in kind" support.

EDITORIAL

Welcome to another issue of National Biways. ABN would like to wish you and your partner or family greetings and the very best for 1996. We would like to extend a special welcome to new members and readers. Sorry for the late issue, holidays and the Summer flu.

Here it is January 1996 and ABN is still without a home. We first faxed an urgent appeal for emergency funding to the Federal Health Minister, Dr. Carmen Lawrence, back on August 8th 1995. Two subsequent letters and several phone calls, and ABN still does not have a written response for her or her office. It is no wonder that voters are somewhat disillusioned with Labor. But she has not been the only one not to respond to our letters. ABN asked several organisations for letters of support but there appears to have been no response. One must question what sort of politics comes into play when a bisexual organisation seeks the support of bodies such as the Australian Federation of AIDS Organisations (AFAO), the AIDS Council of NSW (ACON) and the Queensland AIDS Council and receives no support.

ABN has received continued support from Queensland Senators, Margaret Renyolds (ALP), John Woodley and Cheryl Kernot (Aust. Dem.) and Federal MP's Wayne Swan and Arch Bevis (ALP) along with Councillors and staff of the Brisbane City Council. NSW Health Minister was interested but many other politicians from the state and federal ranks of the ALP and Democrats in Qld, NSW, Vic, Tas, SA, and WA and NSW Independent Clover Moore could not be bothered replying to ABN's appeal for support to gain funding for a new Centre.

On a lighter note but just as important is the International Bisexual Symposium to be held in Berlin, Germany from the 24th to 27th May 1996. Wayne Roberts will be attending at his own expense, but ABN is keen to have more Australian representation at the Conference. If you are planning on making the trip over, do let ABN know. ABN is however endeavouring to secure so funds, sponsorship and donations to at least send a bisexual woman to Berlin, and ideally we would like two women and another guy to attend. So if you are interested in representing us in Berlin, have free time in May, then give us a call and register. If you are not interested in going then perhaps you are prepared to help someone else attend by making a donation to ABN for that express purpose.

Your story is still required for the Down Under Project. DEADLINE for next Biways is Jan 31st and the theme is BISEXUAL DIVERSITY, do contribute.

MEMBERSHIP

ABN is a national organisation and to seek national support and funding we need not only the support of members but all the other Bisexual people that make contact with ABN. If every bi person that contacts ABN by mail or telephone was to join ABN we would have a membership of many hundreds of women and men and a powerful lobbying tool for seeking national support and funding. While ABN has over 600 names with addresses and/or phone numbers of bisexual men and women who have contacted us, our current financial membership as of January 1996 is 117 of which 29 have been sent renewal notices and an additional 20 members whose renewal was due Aug/Sep have been sent final notices.

Of the 117, 44 are women, 3 are transsexuals, 61 are men and 9 are organisations or services. The 117 includes 7 couple memberships (14 members) and 3 overseas memberships. In addition complimentary membership is given to another 4 overseas persons.

National Biways is sent to 16 Bi and Bi-inclusive groups in Australia, Aotearoa - New Zealand, USA, Canada, Argentina, Brazil, UK, Germany, Belgium, Zimbabwe and South Africa. Around 500 Biways are produced and distributed in Australia each issue.

To our members, your continued support is greatly appreciated and to those who are up for membership renewal, we ask you to join up for another year as we need your ongoing support.

If you are a new reader of National Biways, please consider joining ABN as a financial member. You may feel you do not need to become a member of the Australian Bisexual Network, to get involved at even that level but ABN needs you. To receive the respect and recognition of both government & community agencies we need to show we have the support and backing of a diverse Bisexual Community from across the country. For just $20 a year or $15 if you are a student, unemployed or on a pension, you can become a full member of ABN and receive National Biways. Couples can join for $20 and organisations for $25. At the same time you are helping ABN secure funding and provide services to the Bisexual Community throughout Australia.

Our new ABN brochure with membership form has been included with this issue of National Biways. We invite you to fill it out & send it in or pass it on to other bisexual friends and encourage them to join..

DONATIONS ARE ALWAYS WELCOME.

New Brochure for Bisexual Women.

ABN has produced a brochure titled, Women, Bisexuality and Sexual Health. The brochure was released at the NSW HIV/AIDS Health Promotion Conference in Sydney in early November. All women on our mailing list should have already received a copy with the last Biways or through the mail. Media releases were sent out to the queer press, some newspapers and women's magazines. From articles in the queer newspapers, ABN has received a considerable number of requests for the brochure from women and women's services particularly in NSW and Victoria but also from Queensland, South Australia, and Northern Territory. While the artwork on the brochure is from MS Publishing and somewhat conservative, it is the best we could do at the time considering we are not funded.

The brochure is available in three versions, one with information, groups and resources for Australian women, one for international use and one that has this area at the back blank for a specific group's details. Several have already been forwarded to overseas women and groups. Individuals and groups are free to photocopy and distribute the brochure though a donation to ABN is always welcome.

In the Brisbane Area.

BiFem the bisexual women's group has already been active this year with a Picnic at Bribie Island on January 9th and a night out clubbing in Brisbane on the 13th. Their Christmas BBQ in December had a surprise visitor, a funny looking Santa wearing a Bisexual Pride shirt who handed out Dams, condoms and lube to the party revellers.

The group has several planned social activities over the coming weeks. BiFem will be meeting for lunch or coffee and a chat at the Three Monkeys Coffee and Tea House at West End from 1.30pm on January 20th. On January 27th BiFem goes to the Relands Shire, for a 4pm BBQ at Capalaba. February 3rd sees the group venture out for a night of clubbing and on February 17th BiFem does a pub crawl for an afternoon of sampling the ales or fruit juices and maybe some pool challenges along the way.

If you are interested in any of the BiFem activities then call ABN for further details on 07-38572500. You can also catch up with BiFem members at ABN meetings at Cafe Babylon on Jan. 17th and Feb. 21st from 7pm.

On the Sunshine Coast.

WomBi the bisexual women's group on the Sunshine Coast has been quiet over the holiday period but Kim has informed National Biways that activities are in the pipeline and a newsheet is planned to keep Coast women informed of group events and other news. To get in touch with WomBi call ABN on 07-38572500 or 1800-653223.

In Melbourne.

Bisexual Awareness in Melbourne (BAM) has established a Women's Discussion Group which is a safe, confidential and non-judgmental space for women to discuss issues around bisexuality. The women's group is open to all women but exists primarily to discuss issues of relevance to bisexual women. Topics of discussion may include bisexual identities, coming out, relationship negotiations, monogamy - non monogamy, being a bisexual mother, Bisexual feminism, resources, safer sex, is there a bisexual look or should there be.

Discussion groups are held each month usually in Fitzroy. Beky, Beth and Lee-Ann co-ordinate events, one of whom will always be present. For details of location and times, information can be obtained by calling BAM on (03) 98770244 Mon & Tue nights.

From San Francisco, USA.

The latest issue of the Bay Area Bisexual Network's magazine, Anything That Moves, contains some great articles, stories, book reviews by or about bisexual women. Latina Women, Asian & Pacific Islander Kweer Women in the USA, Large Women, Transgender Women, Bisexual Erotica, Bi Theories and Queer (Biphobic) Conferences, are some of the areas discussed in ATM's Issue #9 by some notable USA Bi women such as Laura Perez, Carol Queen, Jill Nagle and UK import, Clare Hemmings. ATM can be read at ABN meetings or borrowed as we have two copies. For members outside Brisbane send a large SAE, your phone number and you can read it at home for 2 weeks max.

See the article on Bi women at Beijing by Kirsten L. Isgro. Permission to reproduce was obtained from the author and the Boston Bisexual Women's Network.

Beijing And Beyond: Thinking About Bisexuality on a Large Scale

by Kirsten L. Isgro

The last five months for me as a bisexual activist have been invigorating! In July, as one of the BiNet's northeast regional representatives, I attended the annual BiNet USA meeting in Minneapolis, Minnesota. At the end of August I went to the United Nations' Non-Governmental Organization (NGO) Forum on Women in China, where I met some amazing bi women. And the last weekend of October, the Vermont Coalition for Lesbian and Gay Rights had their third annual conference, where the Vermont Bisexual Network had a strong presence. Needless to say, I have had lots to think about in terms of community organizing and what it means to be bisexual. The following are some of my thoughts and experiences:

The BiNet's sixth annual meeting was my first national bi event. Committees were formed, ideas were discussed, national coordinators were appointed (including Stephanie Berger, who just recently left Boston for San Francisco), and many new people were met. As someone from a rural state, it was often frustrating to try to figure out how I could go back to Vermont and really start organizing when so much discussion revolved around urban areas. Community organizing really does look different in the country, and it means thinking more carefully about transportation, relationships, geographic distance, and people's sense of isolation. What may work in Boston, San Francisco, Minneapolis or Washington, D.C., will not work in areas where people have to drive across mountains for at least an hour for a social gathering.

This is not to say that bisexuals in cities don't feel isolated. In fact, at the July meeting, time was set aside for separate men's and women's discussions about leadership within the bi movement. This was a very powerful part of the weekend for me, because it gave all of us an opportunity to hear and think about how women often work alone. As Stephanie said, it gave us the 'permission' to acknowledge the difficulties we face as women leaders.

One month later, I was in China as one of 35,000 other people attending the NGO Forum on Women. The goal of the NGO Forum was to "bring together women and men to challenge, create and transform global structures and processes at all levels through the empowerment and celebration of women." My two weeks in China were overwhelming and inspiring, and the stories I have are endless.

Although I did not go to the Fourth World Conference on Women as a bisexual first and foremost, I did have the fabulous experience of meeting other bi women from around the world. There were over 5,000 workshops on women, one of which was "Bisexual Women and Allies" that was held at the Lesbian tent. Over 30 women came to this workshop, from which a smaller group decided to meet for the remainder of the conference. Usually about six to eight women met at noon and talked about our personal experiences and feelings. Women were from Australia, New Zealand, Japan, Thailand, Canada and the United States. There were many common themes that we discussed throughout the week. For many of us, we strive to be closer to people regardless of gender, whether such intimacy is sexual or not. Although we believe this is a strength, we often feel as if we are forced to "choose" to be sexually close with men or women, which may be confining or confusing to us.

The topic of sexual orientation was not included in the final draft of the United Nations' Platform for Action. However, women-loving-women from all over the world gathered in unprecedented numbers at the conference and demanded that women have the "freedom to determine one's own sexuality as an inalienable human right." A four-point document was created and available at the lesbian tent, demanding that "the concerns of lesbians and bisexual women be addressed in the formulation and implementation of all programs and policies which result from the Platform for Action." I was pleased to see "bisexual" included in the draft, and I was excited that I was able to meet other bisexual women at the lesbian tent throughout the conference.

The most recent big event for me was the Vermont Coalition for Lesbian and Gay Rights (VCLGR) conference in Montpelier. The Vermont BiNet had our first annual meeting, where we came up with an action plan for the next year. In addition to getting more people on our mailing list, we planned a potluck on December 10 and a more organized and visible bi presence at the June Pride Day parade.

There were visible bisexuals who led workshops throughout the conference. At one of the workshops, over 20 people got together to talk about the need for a separate bisexual sociopolitical identity, particularly as it relates to our personal lives. Throughout the day, the reception of Vermont BiNet was very welcoming, and I am personally very grateful to the VCLGR's inclusion of bisexual and transgender people at the annual conference. On a very local level, I am very excited to see an active bisexual community growing in Vermont.

Ultimately, I believe the most successful organizing, educating, and connecting with people is done on a one-to-one basis. This means that social change may come more slowly than we sometimes desire. However, making friends and liking and respecting the people we meet and work with is the heart of good organizing. And I have seen a lot of good networking in the past five months! The people who attended the BiNet USA meeting in July, the NGO Forum on Women this fall, and the Vermont BiNet workshops and meeting in October are those individuals who are working on a grassroots level to move toward world-wide change and understanding.

NEW RESOURCE RELEASED IN NSW.

The AIDS Council of New South Wales has released a new brochure and poster addressing the issue for opposite sex couples of when to stop using condoms if they should at all. The brochure is primarily for straight women but is appropriate for bisexual women and heterosexual and bisexual men.

The brochure examines issues such as relationships, honesty, sex, agreements, change, questions and communication. On the back are listed organisations that will be able to provide counsellors who you can talk to about relationships issues, HIV and sexual health.

One question put forward for women to think about is — "What if the other person is not another woman?" — and goes on to state, — Some men who are married or in a committed heterosexual relationship may also have sex with men.

This brochure is a valuable addition to resources available for women and comes at a time when there has been a rise in new HIV infections in women.

Sisters

Sisters is a new booklet produced for young women by believe it or not, the Young Women's Christian Association, the YWCA of Aotearoa - New Zealand with the assistance of the Public Health Commission and help from a diverse range of organisations and young women.

Sisters addresses openly such issues as sexuality, relationships, celibacy and masturbation, sex, HIV & STIs, condoms and dental dams, contraception and sexual abuse. It lists a range of support services and some good books to read.

In the section on Your Sexuality it states: - Part of your sexuality is your sexual; orientation and identity. Learning about your sexuality is a time for and discovering you. The following is an intro to the main types of sexual identity: heterosexual, lesbian and bisexual.

There is a full page dedicated to BISEXUAL and it is supportive, positive and empowering. There are quotes from two 17 year old Bi women and information on safer sex with another woman or a guy. Its great.

Copies of the booklet, Sisters can be obtained from the National YWCA of Aotearoa - NZ, PO Box 9315, Wellington, Aotearoa / New Zealand or by fax from Australia by calling 0015-64-4-384 3301

Mardi Gras & Conferencing

Sydney Gay & Lesbian Mardi Gras.

Yes, that time of the year has come round again. The Sydney Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras Festival commences on February 2nd for a month long celebration of lesbian and gay culture and pride. Tangled up in there is of course bisexual, transgender and Queer/Kweer cultures and pride though it is not something openly spoken about around Oxford Street.

Once again the Sydney Bisexual Support Network (SBSN) will be participating with a stall at the Fair Day on Feb 11th and a float in the Parade. The Canberra Region Bisexual Network has also been planning for the Parade this year. ABN will again march with it's banner so if you are heading for Sydney then why not join us in the Parade on March 2nd. Some Bis from Melbourne and Adelaide will be there so lets make it a real Bi family affair. To find out more about the SBSN activities call Mik on 018-966692. To join in with ABN or the other Bi groups call ABN on Brisbane 07-38572500 or 1800-653223 or Jenneth (03) 93069869.

A guide to the 1996 Sydney Gay & Lesbian mardi Gras Festival has been included in this issue or ring the Mardi Gras Infoline on 1900-957800.

Representing Sexualities Conference.

This conference was held at the University of Sydney on December 8-9-10th. It was organised by the Women's Studies Centre and the Australian Centre for Lesbian and Gay Research and billed as a major conference. Keynote speaker was Elspeth Probyn from University of Montreal and now Director of Women's Studies at University of Sydney. The topics in the info booklet looked quite impressive, Feminism & Identity Politics, Queer Theory and Law, Policy & Sexuality. Registration was $120, $60 conc. As with many conferences on Sexuality and Queer Identities, ABN finds little mention of bisexuality or bisexual identity and politics. From comments made by ABN members, Cath and Myke who attended Representing Sexualities there was no representing bisexuality content, no bisexual speakers, even bisexual was omitted from Queer which is being used more frequently in gay and lesbian circles as another narrow monosexual term. Try and debate this and feel the daggers fly and the backs get turned on you. Yoh!! For Bi Inclusiveness.

NSW's First Rural HIV/AIDS Conference.

This conference will be held in Dubbo, NSW from March 28 to 30th 1996. It is expected to draw around 300 people and will be a focal point for networking, organising, learning, lobbying and coalition and community building. There will be a Conference Dinner and a Gay & Lesbian Dance and a meeting is planned of gay and lesbian social/support groups in rural NSW. There appears to no Bisexual specific content in the Conference but for any bisexuals attending it will be a good chance to raise visibility of rural bisexuals and their issues and network with other rural groups. More information can be obtained from the Conference Organiser, Tony Westmore on mobile 041 9256 339 or from any branch of ACON.

NSW HIV/AIDS Health Promotion Conference.

This conference took place at Potts Point in Sydney on November 8 to 10th. Wayne attended to represent ABN and bisexual people's interests. Several key speakers presented papers on their research studies of "men who have sex with men" and non-gay identifying men who have sex with men. QAC Education Manager spoke on their Regional Response AIDS Project, RRAP which now takes in centres from Cairns to Mt Isa and through to Nth. NSW. It was funny that Wayne had to go to Sydney to find out what the Queensland AIDS Council is doing in Queensland with men who have sex with men, many who identify as bisexual according to the presentation. It appears RRAP wants no contact or input from ABN.

Professor Carlos Caceres from Peru spoke on Representations of Male Bisexuality in Peru and current HIV prevention. He has since sent a copy of his paper to ABN. Wayne also spoke again with Indonesian activist, Dede Oetomo, national co-ordinator of Gaya Nusantara. Dede was given ABN and Bi info to go in their national news magazine. The conference was a valuable opportunity to network further with local, national and international group representatives and researchers. ABN's new Bi women's brochure was released at the conference and copies of it were snapped up by conference delegates.

International Bisexual Symposium.

This will be held in Berlin, Germany from May 24 to 27th 1996. Wayne has committed himself to presenting a workshop and participating in several other presentations and workshops. The preliminary program is produced in this Biways and a registration form has been enclosed. More information is available from the Australian Bisexual Network and sponsorships and donations are now needed so that ABN can send at least a Bisexual woman to Berlin and possibly two women and another bisexual guy besides Wayne who is meeting his own expenses to attend. Please help if you can. Group donations are also welcome.

Your Story Should Be Told.

The Down Under Project

The Australian Bisexual Network proposed the Down Under Project back in October 1993. The aim of the Project was to invite submissions of personal stories, histories, poetry, drawings and the like which would form Australasia's first bisexual anthology. Publication of material received to date was put on hold because it was felt more personal stories were required, lack of time and resources to collate the material and uncertainty over costs of self publishing. ABN is pleased to announce that Cath Lawrence, ABN member of Sydney has volunteered to fill the position of editor.

Further submissions from bisexual women and men, their partners, parents or siblings who reside or resided in Australia, New Zealand, Papua New Guinea, Norfolk Island or the South Pacific, will be accepted. Just so y'all know ...

STOCKTON, Calif. (AP) -- A 27-year-old man is awaiting extradition to Oregon where he is wanted in the slayings of two lesbian activists. Roxanne Ellis and Michelle Abdill were found Dec. 7 bound, gagged and shot in the back of their pickup truck. Robert James Acremant was taken into custody at a motel in north Stockton, police said. He was booked into San Joaquin County Jail pending extradition.

I'm having some trouble believing the following, but I thought I'd pass it along ...

Subject: Man Arrested In Lesbian Slay

STOCKTON, Calif. (AP) -- A SWAT team converged on a motel Wednesday and arrested a 27-year-old man in the slaying of two lesbian activists found bound, gagged and shot in the back of their pickup truck in Oregon.

His father, Kenneth Acremant of Stockton told The Associated Press on Wednesday that police told him his son admitted to killing the women and his missing friend, Scott George. Acremant said that during a prison visit, his son told him he killed George, 23, out of anger and that he killed the women in a botched attempt to get enough money to flee the country. He said his son had quit a steady job to market a computer program, began running out of money and then his girlfriend ended their relationship.

"He wasn't brought up this way," the elder Acremant said. "Something happened to him and he cracked."

Medford Police Chief Ray Shipley refused to discuss the evidence against Acremant or a motive for the slayings last week of Ellis, 53, and Abdill, 42. The couple had spoken out against efforts to limit homosexual rights in Oregon, and their murders sent a shiver of fear through the gay community. John Bondurant, chief deputy district attorney in Oregon's Jackson County, said authorities weren't ruling out any possible motive for the slayings. However, "Nothing in the evidence we have indicates Mr. Acremant knew either of these women were lesbians," he said.

Acremant knew Ellis through a property management agency the women ran. He had been shown the apartment where the women disappeared two weeks prior to the killings. In Visalia, the central California city where Acremant used to live, police said he had been questioned in the October disappearance of George.

"My son went out with George one night drinking and somewhere after drinking they were driving and my son had a gun in his car and he pulled the gun out and shot him," Kenneth Acremant said. "He said he just felt this anger to kill and he just did it."

The younger Acremant has no criminal record in California, Visalia police Sgt. James German said.

From: BIACT-L

Subject: More on the Medford killings

Date: Saturday, 23 December 1995

New word is coming down about the guy who was killed by Robert Acremant. Lt. Tom Lavine of the Medford Police Department has said that Scott George, 23, was the son of Acremant's mother's boyfriend and that he might have been bisexual. (Acremant was arrested for the abduction & murder of lesbian rights activists, Roxanne Ellis & Michele Abdill.)

In an article in the December 17 issue of the San Francisco Examiner, Acremant said, "I don't care for lesbians. Bisexual women don't bother me a bit." Apparently bisexual men did. Last I heard police had found George's body in a Calaveras County mine shaft. He had disappeared after Oct. 3rd.

Now some problems are surfacing as far as Acremant's motives for the crime. He has recently said that he's been lying since he first started interviewing with the press. He's supposedly waiting to sell his story before he tells the truth because he knows that he'll lose the spotlight if he talks now.

Does anyone have any information on the woman he took hostage in Las Vegas? Also has anyone seen any interviews with Acremant's stripper ex-girlfriend? If so, where can I find it?

Thanks-

Adam Wills

Hi Wayne,

Read your posting on the net.

I'm a Malaysian, 46 yo married and my sexual inclinations... straight /gay/bi/kinky, I really don't know.

Heard so much about gay/guy/anal/oral sex, BDSM, spanking, bondage etc etc etc. Never tried any of these before and would really like to give it a try.. but how ? Always fantasize doing the above with same age, gay/bi men/older than I am. Rather horny at times... when I start to think of the above. maybe you can help to connect me and link me up with anybody interested to teach and show me new experiences.

The nearest I got to men was whenever I go get my haircut( and I always go to men barbers...same age/older than i am). The feel of their hands on my head and also the feel of their scissors cutting my hair.... ooooooh it gives me a hard - on throughout the haircut. And sometimes I just come.

Awaiting your reply

Regards,

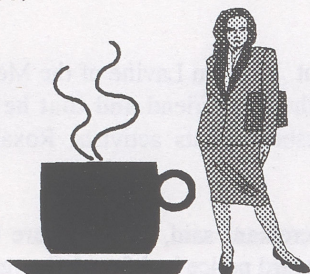

WG

Bi AIDS education needed

JOE CAIT

The "sexually adventurous", specifically bisexual men and their partners, have been targeted as needing HIV/AIDS research and education in a report by the South Eastern Area Health Service.

The report, which was launched on Tuesday in conjunction with a Sydney Men and Sexual Health (SMASH) study on bisexuality, states that approximately 20 percent of recorded Australian heterosexual transmissions for women are attributed to sex with a bisexual male.

Receiving the importance of the work of the Women Partners of Bisexual Men project at the AIDS Council of NSW, and looking at the HIV sero-prevalence statistics, I became interested in developing strategies to reach female partners of bisexual men in southern Sydney," says Women and AIDS project officer, Jo Alley.

The report states that there are high levels of unprotected anal and vaginal sex between bisexual men and their partners, and stresses the need for increased funding initiatives to provide relevant education.

The SMASH study also emphasises the need for HIV/AIDS education to specifically address bisexuality, and challenges preconceived notions of homosexuality.

"Previous studies challenged presumptions about heterosexuality, namely that sexual activity does not occur between straight men," says SMASH project coordinator Garrett Prestage.

"We have found that presumptions about homosexuality are equally inappropriate. Gay men do have sex with women."

Bisexuals, Swingers and the "Sexually Adventurous"

A new report launched by Colin Clews, Area HIV/AIDS Co-Ordinator, South Eastern Area Health Service, has identified a need for HIV/AIDS education and research relating to men who have sex with men and women (MSMW) as a specific target group.

The report cites evidence of:

- * a high proportion of HIV infections amongst Australian women attributed to sex with a bisexual male. (approx 20% of recorded heterosexual transmissions for women.)
- * high levels of unprotected intercourse occurring between men who have sex with men (MSM) and transgenders
- * a small but significant number of MSMW reporting unsafe sex with men and women
- * MSMW reporting inconsistent condom use with male partners
- * high levels of unprotected anal and vaginal sex occurring between MSMW and their casual and regular female partners.

"There is a need to provide education to a range of "sexual adventurous" MSMW, including swingers. Initiatives are required to reach MSMW through ostensibly heterosexual forums, such as sex contact magazines and to place MSMW education in the context of heterosexual culture," says Jo Alley, author of the report.

The report notes the importance of funding initiatives to educate MSM but points out that equitable funding has not been provided for women partners of bisexual men projects.

The report, "The missing half: women partners of bisexual men" will be launched at the National Centre of HIV Epidemiology and Clinical Research, 2nd Floor, 376 Victoria St, Darlinghurst, on Tuesday 7th November at 11 a.m. It will be launched in conjunction with the Sydney Men and Sexual Health Project report "Sexual identity and sexual behaviour with both men and women in a sample of homosexually active men."

Bi the way

By Marcus Morgan

The gay press can be very schizophrenic. Take the coverage of bisexuals for example. Next month we hold our 13th national conference, a gathering from all over the country of activists, campaigners and ordinary folk, who happen to be bisexual.

It's a confusion which is approached by major gay organisations whenever they want to sound out ideas and get a different, constructive opinion. Last year, Stonewall, this year the Pride Trust.

But while we try to work towards equality alongside lesbians and gays, while we chant your chants, wave your banners, contribute to your charities and serve in your bars, you do seem undecided about us.

While the Pink Paper seems to be going through a friendly phase, a recent article in another gay paper listed bisexuals alongside Tory MPs and mother's boys as candidates for "boyfriends from hell".

The article, dealing with crime, violence and dishonesty within relationships, includes no example of why bisexuals are so evil, but we are in the top ten people to avoid. To avoid as boyfriends; not as people to have sex with, but to avoid having a relationship with.

Why are bisexuals so evil? Is it because during the surgery which turns a nice gay boy into a slathering bisexual monster, his normal libido is removed, and a three-ton replacement put in? It's a well-known fact, all a bisexual thinks about is sex. Sex, sex, sex. Not like normal men, het or gay, oh no. While fucking you, a bisexual is probably thinking about screwing your flatmate/neighbours/dog/wallpaper.

It's a well-documented fact that no bisexual has ever had a long-term relationship ever. And those who do, well, we make them swear on oath to always leave for someone of the opposite sex. I mean, gay men never fancy men other than their partners. That's why they are always faithful.

And as that nice David Blunkett pointed out, unsafe unprotected sex is not the act which puts you at risk from HIV. It's being a bisexual that puts you in the high risk group that causes AIDS.

Oh, and they eat babies too, apparently.

Bisexuals can be black, white, disabled, rich, poor, male, female, able-bodied, married, single, in a threesome, monogamous, parents, young, old, non-monogamous, semi-monogamous, polyamorous, omnisequal, transgendered, pansexual, SM, vanilla, nice or nasty. Any of these, okay?

But most of all, a bisexual is anyone who is capable, even if only in their dreams, of having sex with men and women.

Gay boy's so in love with girl!

I'm a sixteen-year-old boy with a steady girlfriend. Problem is, I'm gay.

I've known for a while and I'm happy to be gay. I love my girlfriend and enjoy sex with her, but I think my love is false.

I'd prefer it if she knew and we were best friends instead. I thought I was bisexual, but I know I'm not because I'm obsessed with men's bodies.

I know my girlfriend loves me and I don't want to hurt her, but I want to meet other gay lads of my age so I can talk about the way I feel.

★ JANE SAYS: Gay Switchboard (0171-837 7324) will put you in touch with local groups.

But don't rush to pin labels on yourself — a lot of people experiment sexually during their teens, and your feelings for your girl are true enough. You'll have dozens of relationships before you settle down. It's important to be comfortable about your sexuality—whatever it is.

The OutWrite conference is a Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, and Transgendered writers conference. For the past several years it has been held in Boston in the dead of winter (hotels are cheaper then). There are speakers, workshops, vendors, a dance, and a poetry slam. I've always enjoyed the conference in past years. The dates are February 23rd - 25th.

I have registration information (but not in electronic form and not here where I'm typing), if you need it.

Mutare : Zimbabwe
14th December 1995.

Dear Wayne,
Thanks so much for your message.

Zimbabwe has not even considered bi-sexual persons and although GALZ does have very few bi-sexual members, we do try to include them in our organisation.

The heat is on the homosexuals and certainly President Mugabe and his Parliament have not started on bi-sexuals. I am not sure that they will but I very much doubt it. It would be very difficult to identify bi-sexuals and their "cover" is much stronger than that of homosexuals. From the few bi-sexuals people I have spoken to they are of the opinion that this is the 'homos' fight and are very reluctant to get involved.

I hope this answers your questions and I very much appreciate any suggestions or comments you might have so that we may involve bi-sexual people more.

Best,
STEVE

[ My question to Steve was regarding the homophobic attitude of Zimbabwe President, Robert Mugabe, and his attacks on gay and lesbian people in Zimbabwe, if those attacks were also directed at bisexual people and whether bisexuals were involved in the struggle for gay / human rights in Zimbabwe. In August 1995, ABN sent a fax to South African President, Nelson Mandela, on the eve of a visit to South Africa by Mugabe, urging him to speak with Mugabe on the abuse of human rights of gay people in Zimbabwe. A reply from President Mandela's office was received by ABN stating that the matter would be considered by the President. Mugabe's anti-gay stance has been condemned world wide with protests in Australia, New Zealand, UK, USA, Sw.eden and South Africa to name a few. ]

Movie Review

"Carrington" Omits Lesbian Element of Artist's Life

by Kenneth Athon.

If you think your love life is a shambles, consider the case of Dora Carrington.

Born 1893 in England, Dora idolized her elderly father and practically hated her mother. Not educated formally in the British sense of the word, she nevertheless was able to attend a school of fine arts, where she developed her drawing and painting skills admirably. It was there that she began wearing her hair in a short "bob" style—the equivalent of today's teens' blue hair and pierced noses—and insisted on being called, simply, Carrington.

At art school, she was so popular that she had two suitors, who happened also to be best friends. Their love for Carrington ultimately destroyed their friendship. Both tried without success to simply seduce her and when that failed after years—not just weeks or months but years—of trying, both proposed marriage. Perhaps for the sake of the friendships and not wanting to alienate either of the boys, she steadfastly remained a virgin despite attempts by several mutual friends to convince her otherwise, and she married neither.

It was while still courting the more persistent of her young suitors, that she met an older writer, Lytton Strachey. It was an odd, awkward meeting; Strachey, seeing Carrington from afar, thought she was a young man and was literally speechless when he was formally introduced to her. Later, while Strachey was trying to convince Carrington that her suitor was right for her, she professed her love for Strachey instead. It mattered not to her that Strachey was homosexual. In fact, she offered her virginity first to him, but he was impotent at the thought of hetero-sex.

Carrington was full of contradictions. She was a pacifist, yet professed a willingness to serve England in World War I, simply for the sake of service. She was heterosexual (primarily) but would neither marry nor consummate her relationships for the sake of love. When she did marry, it was for the sake of bringing her bisexual husband into a more permanent place in Strachey's—not her own—life. While married, she allowed her husband to have a live-in mistress while she carried on secret affairs.

While she could remain aloof from her suitors, husband and lovers, she was utterly devoted to Strachey. Drawings, sketches and paintings of Strachey adorned every wall in her house. It was, as she described, a self-debasing love, the love that puts self not second but last, an love wherein she not only doted on Strachey, but nursed his every ailment and even bathed him.

The new movie, "Carrington", by the screenwriter of "Dangerous Liaisons", is a sad portrait of the artist who could find no adequate meaning for her life other than loving men, principally Strachey, who could not love her with the same intensity. The story is framed, not by the development of her art or by some other measure, but by the men who were the center of her short life.

It's unfortunate that the film cannot tell the whole story of Carrington's life within this framework because it omits Carrington's one love interest that surpassed those of the men who had pursued her. In 1923, she fell in love with Henrietta Bingham, the daughter of the American ambassador. In a letter to a friend, Carrington related, "I am very much more taken with Henrietta than I have been with anyone for a long time. I feel now regrets at being such a blasted fool in the past, to stifle so many lusts I had in my youth, for various females." Carrington's biographer, Gretchen Gerzina, reports that Henrietta and Carrington were lovers, at least for a short while.

The film, "Carrington", opened nationwide in the USA in November. Despite its historical shortcomings, if the movie comes to a theater near you, see it. Stay for the final credits to see examples of Carrington's art, which is now coveted by collectors.

The Australian Bisexual Network had been granted permission to reproduce the above review in National Biways magazine at no charge and we would like to thank New Lesbian and Gay Voice for permission to reprint. "Carrington" opened throughout Australia at about the same time as in the USA. Do endeavour to see it. Any movie that depicts Bisexual women and men, their lives and loves should be celebrated at the same time as we take a critical look at the way they are being portrayed to the general public. [Ed.]

On the Beat

Beats, public places where men met and have sex, can be fun and exciting, anonymous, frustrating, and downright dangerous. During our Australian Summer and holiday season, beats at parks, shopping centres and beaches are particularly very active. Because of this higher activity, they attract greater public attention and condemnation. Members of the public, neighbours may complain to the local council, shopping centre management or police and patrols may be stepped up to deter or catch beat users. If caught, it can be very embarrassing and even harmful as you are paraded through the police station, the courts and local press forever "outed" to your wife, family, friends, work mates and community.

Of course there is always the dangers of unsafe sex and the possibility of contracting a sexually transmitted disease even HIV if you slip up on some occasion. Give it to your spouse and you will surely have some explaining to do and it may lead to your relationship breakdown.

The other real danger due to greater beat usage is bashers, thieves and extortionists. We reported in our last issue about a police crackdown at beats in Adelaide. In Brisbane over recent weeks there has been a serious spate of bashings and robberies at Albert Park and particularly Dutton Park beats. One ABN member was severely assaulted at Dutton Park. Other users have been bashed and robbed and one guy even had his car taken after being bashed.

If you must go out looking for sex, carry a whistle, don't go down dark or isolated tracks, don't go into toilet blocks at night, tell other users of signs of trouble, report any incidents to your state or local Anti Violence Group and/or to ABN. Ideally you should also report incidents to the Police so they can prevent it happening to someone else. Here are some numbers you can ring.

About ABN.

The Australian Bisexual Network (ABN) is a national network of bisexual women, transsexuals and men, partners of bisexual people and bisexual and bi-friendly groups and services. ABN is a member of International Lesbian & Gay Association & hosts ILGA's Bisexual Information Pool. ABN is represented at meetings of the Australian Council for Lesbian & Gay Rights (Qld. Network) and co-operates with a range of groups & services Australia wide.

ABN consists of a Brisbane based committee along with a National Council consisting of regional representatives from the states & territories and from various special interest groups. National Co-Convenors, one female & one male are selected from those on the National Council.

ABN is not funded by government or any other organisations for the day to day operations. Your membership, donations and support keeps the movement, Network & magazine going. Do join or make a donation. Membership of ABN is only $20 pa, $15 concessional, $25 organisations. Volunteers are always needed to help out.

Our Aims.

The Australian Bisexual Network endeavours to:-

- produce National Biways, a bi-monthly national news magazine for bisexuals.

The Australian Bisexual Youth Forum is the youth arm of the Network. It aims to provide information and support to young gays and girls under 26 who are bisexual or questioning their attractions towards both women and men. ABYF is a network linking young bisexual people through out Australia where they can either meet for discussion, support or social activities. Our conference call facility enables a three way conversation thus breaking down the isolation of those in remote areas and building self-esteem and confidence. Under 30's are also catered for on special nights or socials.

The Partners Support Project provides information & support for the partners or family of bisexual men and women. Books, articles & brochures are available.

Our History.

1990 - A group of bisexual men and women carrying a banner saying, "Bisexuals are Everywhere", marched in the first Pride March for gay, lesbian, bisexual & transgender people in Perth, Western Australia as part of the first October Pride Festival.

1991 - They again marched in the Stonewall and Pride Marches in 1991. In October a meeting of interested Bi people was held in Fremantle and a follow up meeting in November in Perth saw the founding of the Western Australian Bisexual Network.

1992 - WABN holds regular meetings and socials and from March produces a newsletter called, Biways. During October's Pride Festival, WABN hosted the first Australian National Bisexual Conference in Perth. A resolution from the Conference was the establishment of a national network, the Australian Bisexual Network and a national newsletter. In November, Bisexuals in Adelaide formed the South Australian Bisexual Network. This was followed later the same month in Sydney with the formation of Love Is Boundless, a group of bisexuals and transgenderists. In December an Australian Bisexual Network banner is displayed for the first time at a protest in Adelaide.

1993 - The Australian Bisexual Network is based in Brisbane and releases the first National Biways in February in time for the Sydney Gay & Lesbian Mardi Gras. Love is Boundless has a small float in the Mardi Gras Parade and the ABN banner accompanies Sydney group in Parade. In March the first meeting was held in Brisbane followed by a forum on Bisexuality in April and the establishment of the Queensland Bisexual Network. QBN groups form on the Sunshine Coast, in Townsville and the Gold Coast. LIB changes name to Sydney Bisexual Support Network. ABN/QBN set up Bisexual Resource & Drop-In Centre at East Brisbane from October.

1994 - Centre opens. SABN becomes Adelaide Bisexual Collective. Bisexual Awareness in Melbourne forms followed by Canberra Regional Bisexual Network. SBSN, ABN & ABC on float in Mardi Gras Parade. Rochhampton forms while Perth, Sunshine Coast & Townsville fold. ABN represented at International Bisexual Conference in New York, joins ILGA and marches in Stonewall 25 Parade to Central Park. QBN receives grant from Qld. Drug Offensive to produce information for bisexuals. Bi Centre closes in October.

1995 - New Bisexual Community Centre opens at New Farm. ABN and SBSN again in Sydney Gay & Lesbian Mardi Gras Parade. ABN receives funding for computer & office equipment. ABN is represented at two queer youth & student conferences in Melbourne & at the ILGA World Conference in Rio de Janeiro. Centre forced to close by October & lobbying for funds commences. Bisexual women's groups form in Brisbane and on the Sunshine Coast. ABN is represented at three major conferences in Sydney. New brochure, Women, Bisexuality & Sexual Health launched at NSW HIV/AIDS Health Promotion Conference, Sydney in November.

April 9-10, 1996, Clark Kerr Campus Convention Center

keynote speakers and panelists will include

author of many articles on HIV counseling interviews based on data from US and UK testing centers

Walt Odets

Psychotherapist and author of

In the Shadow of the Epidemic: Being HIV Negative in the Age of AIDS

This conference will provide an informal working forum for HIV/AIDS researchers, service providers and activists to discuss current prevention programs, policies and controversies, and strategize for the future.

If you would like to present research related to HIV prevention, report on intervention programs, and/or participate in the conference, contact

Nicolas Sheon, (510) 268-1270, nsheon@uclink2.berkeley.edu

Medical Anthropology Program, 232 Kroeber Hall,

UC Berkeley, CA 94720-3710, USA.

As the title of the conference suggests, the time has come to re-evaluate the models of desire that have informed HIV prevention education. Desire should no longer be conceptualized as a biological and individual phenomenon managed by rational cost/benefit calculations. Desire is psychologically, culturally and historically constructed and signified at the level of dyadic relationships, communities, subcultures, and the wider social structure. What has been the role of HIV prevention education in inciting and delimiting the expression of desire? To what extent do prevention messages create backlash and spaces for transgressive subjectivities enacted through unsafe sexual practices? Other controversies to be explored during the conference include the "negotiated safety" model and the ideological impact of serial monogamy on prevention messages, the relative risks of oral sex, the implications of home HIV testing, the politics of needle exchange, outreach to sex workers, the "de-gayng" of prevention messages, promoting "negative pride," and empowering women's agency in safer sex practices. In order for the conference to have a lasting impact, presentations will be followed by small group discussions, networking and strategizing that will provide a unique opportunity for researchers and service providers to critique and develop prevention strategies. The conference is aimed at tackling these controversies from a pragmatic and future oriented perspective. Please join us.

Subject: Managing Desire: HIV Prevention Strategies for 21st Century.

Date: Friday, 8 December 1995

Dear Irene

Could you please forward more information on this conference to us and whether you feel it would be appropriate to Australian Bisexuals. I have a Bachelor of Social Work, have worked briefly for Queensland Government Health Dept. in Sexual Health & HIV/AIDS but do most of my work as a volunteer co-ordinator of the Australian Bisexual Network, an unfunded grassroots network of and for bi men and women, partners and bi groups. We are far too often left out on consultations, research programs, policy development and conferences and information sharing. We have just released a brochure titled, Women, Bisexuality and Sexual Health and in January will release one titled, The Swingers Guide to Safe Fun Times, addressing HIV/AIDS, safer sex and sexual health issues for individuals and couples who swing. I look forward to hearing from you about this conference, perhaps I could present a paper on Bisexuality, Recognition and HIV Prevention.

Dear Wayne,

Thanks for writing about the conference. I think the best person to contact for more information would be:

Nicolas Sheon, (510) 268-1270, nsheon@uclink2.berkeley.edu

Medical Anthropology Program, 232 Kroeber Hall, UC Berkeley 94720-3710

I've cced your letter on to him. He's actually the one getting it together. I'm working on queer stuff, but not this project so much, I just passed the info along. But hey, if you come in for the conference, give a shout and I'll take you around some of the queer/bi stuff that's happening over here, and ask you more about what you're working on. Take care, and I'm glad to get just a snippet of what's going on in OZ!

To: RobertW

Subject: Managing Desire: HIV Prevention Strategies for the 21st century

Date: Sunday, 10 December 1995 2:09PM

Dear Wayne,

I was forwarded your query about whether the conference was an appropriate forum for the discussion of Australian bisexuals. As the organizer of the conference, I am very interested in the paper topic you propose on bi's, recognition and safe sex. I'm not sure exactly what your question is getting at in terms of the appropriateness of the conference. I can tell you how I envision the conference. It's small, focused primarily on networking, discussion, and sharing of experience, and secondarily on presenting papers and projects. It last's for two days and I envision a total of eight sessions or panels with two going on simultaneously. The presentations will focus on the practicalities of prevention work, and the idea is to bring academics and prevention workers (obviously not always distinct species) together to reflect on past efforts and strategize on sustainable future prevention programs.

Please let me now if this answers your question and also if there are other Australians interested in attending the conference. The sooner I know the better so that I can organize panels accordingly. Also let me know if you would need information on accommodations.

As for me, I am an HIV test counselor writing a thesis (Medical Anthropology) on HIV testing. Some of my work overlaps with that of some other Australians who recently published an article in Social Science and Medicine: Lupton, D., McCarthy, S., & Chapman, S. (1995). "Doing the right thing": the symbolic meanings and experiences of having an HIV antibody test. Social Science and Medicine, 41(2), 173-80.

The authors are based in Sydney at the University of Western Sydney and the University of Sydney. If you know their e-mail addresses I would be very grateful to have them forwarded to me. Thank you. Nicolas.

Assistant Editors: Susanna Trnka, Dajanya,

"THIS ANTHOLOGY IS CRUCIAL READING FOR ANYONE TRYING TO MAKE SENSE OF SHIFTING DEFINITIONS OF SEXUALITY AND POLITICS IN A POSTMODERN AGE... The authors, a collection of some of the most influential bisexual activists, historians, and theorists of our time, simultaneously contextualize and deconstruct (often blurring) current notions of gender, sexual orientation, and identity politics. Historically grounded, the essays collectively inform, liberate, enlighten, excite, challenge—some even shock and upset!"
—Warren J. Blumenfeld, Editor, Homophobe: How We All Pay the Price, Co-author, Looking at Gay and Lesbian Life: Journal of Gay, Lesbian, and Bisexual Identity

This anthology presents a vivid collection of essays that explore the history, strategies, philosophy, and diversity of bisexual politics and theory in the United States. The authors analyze different organizing strategies, formulate new bisexual political theory, provide a vision of future directions for redefining sexuality and gender, and educate activists and allies about current issues pertinent to the bisexual community.

"Original research explained in a highly credible and readable text. Groundbreaking work in the field of sexology."

—Gay Chicago Magazine

"Offers a basic understanding of bisexuality, and also helps to clarify some myths about bisexuality... If you are looking for a general purpose discussion of bisexuality, then this book will fit the bill."

—SRRT Newsletter, (Social Responsibilities Roundtable)

The Bisexual Option explores bisexuality, explains the bisexual, and explodes myths surrounding this large "unseen" segment of the population. Now in its second edition, this intriguing book gives an overview of bisexuality. As there is still no book that covers the subject like this one, it is must reading for establishing a contemporary view of bisexuality and those committed to a bisexual lifestyle. Fritz Klein, an experienced psychiatrist and expert in bisexuality and sexual orientation, explains the concept and the variables of sexual orientation and where bisexuality fits.

SOMEONE YOU KNOW

A FRIEND'S FAREWELL

Maria Pallotta-Chiarolli

RRP $14.95, paperback original, non-fiction

This book is Australia's first AIDS biography and a moving documentary of the times. The story is simple but deals with complex issues. Maria, a married Italian-Australian woman, and Jon, a gay man, teach together at a metropolitan Adelaide high school. Despite different backgrounds, they share common opinions, become good friends. She experiences the joy of imminent motherhood; he learns that he is HIV positive. They keep each other's secrets. Maria lies for Jon to shield him from a society that fears and reviles AIDS sufferers. The threads and entanglements of their lives come together at Jon's final gathering in a Sydney hospice.

Someone You Know is a wonderful book about what people can do to help each other when the chips are down. It's a true story and it could be about someone you know.

Readership: general public, AIDS support groups, Australian Studies, English, religious and health educators, grief and bereavement counsellors, social work/community groups.
Availability: all major booksellers.

Ita Buttrose, Chairperson of the AIDS Trust of Australia, says:

'Someone You Know is a sensitive and loving book about friendship and AIDS. Maria's book is important reading. It covers the issues that AIDS makes us confront and will help all of us who are involved in AIDS education, research and care.'
